LEESBURG MAN CHARGED WITH EXPOSING HIMSELF

December 7, 1994 at 7:00 p.m. EST

A 25-year-old Leesburg man has been arrested for allegedly exposing himself to children while wearing pantyhose.

Michael E. Calvert was arrested Dec. 2 and charged with two counts of taking indecent liberties with a juvenile, said Leesburg police Sgt. Joanna Parrott. He has been released on $25,000 bond.

Police had received reports of seven incidents beginning in February of a pantyhose-clad man approaching juveniles in various parts of town, including near Leesburg Elementary School, Parrott said. Investigators were able to confirm that two cases involved indecent exposure, she said.

Calvert's attorney, Garland Stith, declined to comment on the specifics of the case. "Our position at this time is that he's not guilty," Stith said. "As far as I'm concerned, it's a misunderstanding."
